CUBAN SUGAR IS DESTROYED BOSS CAN'T DO POLITICS ON MOLOKAI

Floods Wreck Cuban Fields

Fresh Reports of Great Damage Done By Tornado And Heavy Rains

(Associated Press Cable.)
HAVANA, Cuba, Oct. 19.—Latest reports from the provinces of Cuba now coming in show that the damage done by tornado and flood two days ago is much greater than was first expected. News is pouring in from distant points, and with each fresh story the extent of the disaster is greater.
Millions of dollars' worth of property has been destroyed, and mile after mile of growing sugar-cane and other crops laid waste by the terrific winds and the rains that soon turned into floods. No estimate of the extent of the disaster has yet been made, for there are many agricultural districts still to be heard from.

Many lives have been lost, though the actual deaths are few in comparison with the number of people who are homeless and destitute, driven out by the floods.

From Key West comes news of many wrecks among the vessels in the coasting trade, and many more are missing. It is one of the greatest floods in the history of Cuba.

CLARK ADMITS IN ANSWER THAT HE WOULD NOT REPLY BUT SAYS NO CONTEMPT

Next Saturday is the day set for arguments in the citation for contempt issued against Henry Clark, and at that time they will be heard, the case being continued from today when it was to have been argued.

In his answer to the citation filed today Clark claims, among other things, that to have answered the two questions which he refused to do about two checks would tend to incriminate himself as he was under arrest charged with embezzlement.

There are eleven points in the answer filed in the criminal court in which he says at one point that he refused to answer the questions upon advice of counsel.

He claims that at the time he was before the jury there was a charge of embezzlement against him which is still pending, charging the amount of $288, and the purported check of B. L. Zablan, was mentioned in the first question of the jury which he declined to answer.

The purported check referred to in the second question was dated June 13, 1910, and made payable to the District Magistrate of Honolulu for the sum of $325.

Respondent believes and avers that the investigation of the Grand Jury found an indictment against him for embezzlement of funds of which these checks were a part, and he believes that the checks were not entered in the books of account kept by him.

He denies that he declined to answer these questions but avers that he was not guilty of contempt in so doing.

He refused to answer these questions on advice of counsel and has the right to refuse to answer if the answer would be self-incriminating. He was under oath at the time and gave his reason to the jury for refusing to answer.

Further Clark avers his right to refuse to answer any question the answer of which would furnish one link in the chain of evidence that might convict him of the crime of embezzlement, and the Constitution guarantees the privilege claimed which extends to testimony before the Grand Jury.

JURY DRAWN IN SECOND TRIAL

Bunce and White to Face
Court Again Tomorrow Morning.

It took nearly the whole morning to draw a jury for the second trial of the two soldiers, Bunce and White, who are charged with robbing a woman at Iwilei several months ago, and when the drawing was finally completed just before noon, the case was continued until tomorrow morning.

STRAIGHT TICKET TALKS

BY ARCHIBALD A. YOUNG.

"I am not in politics, not actively identified with political affairs, but when the time comes I am going to vote the straight Republican ticket. It is the only ticket for the Hawaiian business man at the coming election. I am not greatly interested in politics, but the straight ticket is the ticket for me in this campaign, and that's how I'll vote.

No game is played today between the Chicago Cubs and the Philadelphia Athletics for the championship of the world. The teams are on their way to Chicago, where the third game of the series will be played tomorrow. The Philadelphia have now taken two games. The Bulletin will report this game as it has the others, by special cable service. The Bulletin's reports are the only adequate ones published in the Territory, and thousands of fans are reading them.

MISMANAGEMENT; TEN-MILLION SUIT ON

(Associated Press Cable.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Charging mismanagement in the administration of affairs by officers of the Illinois Central railroad, attorneys representing stockholders have filed suit for $10,000,000 of damages.

The road is charged with having wasted its money, and there is more than an intimation of alleged complicity in the use of its funds for political purposes. The charges name many officers high in the affairs of the Illinois Central.

POTHIER AGAIN FOR RHODE ISLAND

(Associated Press Cable.)
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 19.—The Republicans today renominated Governor Pothier. Governor Pothier, in a speech after being chosen, endorsed the administration of President Taft and the tariff as it now stands.

SAM KAHU WAS CAUGHT TODAY

Escaped Prisoner Is Found
Asleep Under Bridge At Moanalua.

This morning at 9 o'clock, Police Officer J. K. Mokuama captured Sam Kahu, the prisoner who escaped from the Queen's Hospital several days ago. The lad was caught down at Moanalua under a bridge that spans the creek near Mr. Damon's house. A bicycle was found alongside of Sam, and as the officer crept up while the youth was asleep, the arrest was easy. It appears from Sam's story, as told at the Police Station this morning, that he has been for some days camping under the bridge at Moanalua. He depended for food upon some taro that he managed to get from a Chinese storekeeper and he got a little fish occasionally.

Last night Kahu visited Kakaako and took in the Democratic meeting; he said that he enjoyed the hula-hula very much and then returned to Moanalua on his brother's bicycle. He was tired out after listening to the Democratic speeches and slept late this morning. Sam says that the next time he runs away he will avoid Democratic meetings.

Kahu is serving a sentence that will not expire till 1912 and, as he is likely to get one more year's jail for his latest escapade, he will be a guest at Asch's hotel for some considerable time to come.

William F. Downes, a former clerk in the Baltimore (Md.) register's office, was placed on trial for the fourth time for the alleged larceny of $67,000. The jury disagreed at previous trials.

Arthur Brown, a white man, went to the electric chair in the Richmond (Va.) penitentiary recently for the murder of a father and the latter's child.

LEPROSY BACILLI BALLOON DRIFTS ARE FOUND SIMILAR 700 MILES IN RACE

Experts Establish Fact With Arrival of Clegg From Manila.

BUSY AT WORK AT KALIHU STATION

Series of Wonderful Experiments With Vaccine In Progress—Results Not Expected for Months.

That the bacilli of leprosy in the Philippine Islands and the Hawaiian Islands is the same, is the important fact already established at the leprosy investigation station since the arrival of Moses T. Clegg, the noted expert who has recently come from Manila to join Dr. Donald H. Currie in his work here. Mr. Clegg brought some cultures of the leprosy bacilli from Manila and when compared with the culture made by Dr. Currie, the two were found to be identical. To the naked eye they appear alike, and under the microscope the similarity is even more marked.

This established fact is important because it argues the similarity of the disease all over the world, indicating to the medical mind that the vaccine treatment being worked out in Hawaii, will, if successful here, be successful anywhere else. This means that if Dr. Currie and Mr. Clegg successfully treat leprosy cases in the islands, they have discovered and developed a method of procedure that will cure leprosy anywhere.

That this is looking pretty far into the future the experts themselves are the first to admit. They are now engaged in carrying on some wonderful experiments with the vaccine, but it will be months before they can announce definite results.

Preparations for elaborating the scope of the work are going actively forward. Mr. Clegg wasted no time in getting busy after his arrival. He is already deep in his experiments.

FULLER ESTATE WORTH $47,410

The estate of Andrew Fuller, deceased, which has just been appraised by C. H. Cooke, M. T. Simons, and F. B. Damon, is given a total valuation of $47,456.70, but 20 per cent. is taken off the value of the stocks enumerated, thus bringing the net value of the estate left by the deceased down to $47,410.57.

Stocks and bonds enumerated amount to $59,230.63, and of this total amount nineteen shares of Matson Navigation Company, valued at $1900, comprise the only holdings in corporations outside the Territory. The greatest value of any one amount of stock in the estate is that of sixty-two shares of Bank of Hawaii, valued at $12,400.

On account of the fluctuation of stocks in the local market, 20 per cent. of the face value was written off, which amounted to a little more than $10,000.

PLYMOUTH, Eng., Oct. 19.—King Manuel, deposed monarch of Portugal, accompanied by the queen mother, Amelie, arrived here today on the British royal yacht. ### Molokai Won't Hear The Boss

M'Candless Is Refused Special
Permit He Wanted
So Much

Boss M'Candless can't carry politics into the leper settlement at Molokai. This is the final answer of the Board of Health, and it is distinctly unsatisfying to the Democratic campaign managers who saw a chance for Link to slip one over on the other candidates by making a trip to the leper settlement just before election. As it is, the settlement will have to get along without the presence of the Democratic boss.
M'Candless refused to regard the agreement entered into by the Republicans and Home Rulers. Both of these parties were willing to stay away from the leper settlement, owing to the fact that speakers in previous campaigns have promised the inhabitants of the settlement anything they wanted. A good deal of trouble has been stirred up by these methods, and the Board of Health during the present campaign asked the politicians to sheer clear of Molokai.
M'Candless was eager to break into the settlement in any way he could, and yesterday, before leaving on another island campaign tour, issued orders to his ready lieutenant, T. R. Ryan, to secure a special permit from the Board of Health. This permit has been refused, the Board of Health sending word to the Democratic campaign managers that there is nothing doing for M'Candless, even if he is a boss.

NEW ORDINANCE TO PROTECT FOOD IS DRAFTED AND SENT UP FOR ADVICE ON LEGALITY

Boss M'Candless can't carry politics into the leper settlement at Molokai. This is the final answer of the Board of Health, and it is distinctly unsatisfying to the Democratic campaign managers who saw a chance for Link to slip one over on the other candidates by making a trip to the leper settlement just before election. As it is, the settlement will have to get along without the presence of the Democratic boss.

The ordinance is an exceedingly stringent one, but at the same time it is a vigorous effort to enforce health measures. It will affect every shop, large and small, that sells foodstuffs of any description.

Food Classified.
Five classes of food are mentioned as follows, under Section 2:
(a) All meats, fish, birds, game and poultry, not including anything alive.
(b) All dried fruits and vegetables, all fruits and vegetables which are not sold whole, and all compounds, essences, extracts and substances derived in part or in whole from fruits, vegetables, nuts and roots, or from one or more of such sources.

(c) All of the fruits, vegetables and products of land or sea called and known by the names and descriptions here following, viz.: Apples, apricots, artichokes, berries of all kinds, cabbage, cauliflower, celery, cherries, cucumbers, dates, figs, grapes, lettuce, limu, mangoes, ohia (mountain apple), onions, oranges, peaches, pears, peppers, plums, radishes, tomatoes, turnips, and other plants sold for food which do not have their surfaces removed before eating.

(d) Butter, cheese and other dairy products.

(e) Breads, cakes, candies, ice cream and other bakery or confectionery products.

The clause relating to covering the food says:

"All food or foodstuffs shall be protected from contact of, and contamination by, the public."

ACTING HEAD IS APPOINTED

J. W. Short In Charge of Customs Inspectors Following Shake-up.

Two more members of the custom house force are expected to lose their jobs as the result of further investigations into the alleged crap-shooting that has been going on. It is reported that the information as to the crap games was given out by a janitor at the custom house.

John W. Short has been temporarily placed in charge of the inspectors' division at the local customs house, pending the appointment of an officer for the position vacated by the resignation of C. H. Raven.

Collector Stackpole stated this morning that he still had under advisement the matter of appointing new men to positions vacated by Raven, Jacobson, Bowers and Noyes. At noon today no selection had been decided upon by the collector.

Mr. Short is at present connected with the customs service in the capacity of chief clerk. It is understood that those men now in the service with the day and night force of inspectors who have served that department in a faithful and satisfactory manner will have the call for promotion.

Two new men have been selected from the eligible Civil Service list for appointment to the Federal customs service.

H. H. Williams and Joseph K. Cockett have been notified that they are eligible to appointment, and should they accept the positions they will be assigned to the night force of inspectors.

Other appointments may follow.

Crap Game Cause of Shake-Up.

A lady and well-patronized crap game is assigned as the cause of the wholesale resignations coming from oldtime employees of the customs service. It is only due to Raven and Jacobson to state that they were not involved in the quiet little game that is declared to have been carried on within the premises occupied.
